The Bangalore Sanskrit College has only just enough accommodation for its own purposes. It has 120 pupils on its rolls and 14 classes. The rooms being small and insufficient, 4 classes are held in the hall also. The Hall is also used for lectures

I am not sure of the prevalence of Plague should drive us to transfer an institution from one place to another. May the D.G. be asked to renew his proposal at the end of the year?

This is a queer proposal - I moved for an order as follows

No 2312/74

BANGALORE 11th September 1902.

From

H J BHABHA Esq M A
INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

To

H V Nanjundayya Esq, M A B L,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore

SIR

I have the honor to inform you that the progress of the Normal School suffers greatly every year on account of the annually recurring epidemic of plague in Mysore, and the low and unhealthy situation of the buildings in which the Normal and Practising Schools are held. I have found it impossible for some years past on account of the difficulties created by plague to maintain the efficiency & progress of the Normal School I should be glad if Government would be good enough to permit the school to be transferred to Bangalore and held in the building of the Bangalore Sanskrit College until plague is stamped out from Mysore The Sanskrit College building has ample accommodation for both the College and the Normal School. If however the Normal School cannot be located in the Sanskrit College building, I request that Government may be pleased to sanction a house rent of about 100 Rupees a month for the next two or three years to enable the Department to engage a suitable house for the Normal School in Bangalore The Mysore Normal School is the only institution which prepares candidates for the Vernacular Upper Secondary Examination, and has a college depart ment in which candidates are prepared for the Kannada Pandits' examination and the Maulvies Examination

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
H J Bhabha
Inspector General -
